[AS AMENDED BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE BILL]

TO

Make provision for replacing the office of Lord Chancellor, and to abolish that office; to establish a Supreme Court of the United Kingdom, and to abolish the appellate jurisdiction of the House of Lords; to make provision about the jurisdiction of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and the judicial functions of the President of the Council; to make other provision about the judiciary, their appointment and discipline; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

ARRANGEMENTS TO REPLACE THE OFFICE OF LORD CHANCELLOR

The judiciary and courts

1 Guarantee of continued judicial independence

- (1) Ministers of the Crown and all with responsibility for matters relating to the judiciary or otherwise to the administration of justice must uphold the continued independence of the judiciary. 5
- (2) The following particular duties are imposed for the purpose of upholding that independence.
- (3) Ministers of the Crown must not seek to influence particular judicial decisions through any special access to the judiciary. 10
- (4) The Secretary of State for Constitutional Affairs (“the Minister”) must have regard to—
 - (a) the need to defend that independence;

- (b) the need for the judiciary to have the support necessary to enable them to exercise their functions;
- (c) the need for the public interest in regard to matters relating to the judiciary or otherwise to the administration of justice to be properly represented in decisions affecting those matters. 5
- 2 President of the Courts of England and Wales
- (1) The Lord Chief Justice holds the office of President of the Courts of England and Wales.
- (2) As President of the Courts of England and Wales he is responsible – 10
- (a) for representing the views of the judiciary of England and Wales to Parliament, to the Minister and to Ministers of the Crown generally;
- (b) for the maintenance of appropriate arrangements for the welfare, training and guidance of the judiciary of England and Wales within the resources made available by the Minister;
- (c) for the maintenance of appropriate arrangements for the deployment of the judiciary of England and Wales and the allocation of work within courts. 15
- (3) The President of the Courts of England and Wales is president of the courts listed in subsection (4) and is entitled to sit in any of those courts.
- (4) The courts are – 20
- the Court of Appeal
- the High Court
- the Crown Court
- the county courts
- the magistrates' courts. 25
- (5) In section 1 of the Supreme Court Act 1981 (c. 54), subsection (2) (Lord Chancellor to be president of the Supreme Court of England and Wales) ceases to have effect.
- 3 Functions of the Lord Chancellor and organisation of the courts
- Schedule 1 contains amendments which relate to – 30
- (a) certain functions of the Lord Chancellor, or
- (b) the organisation of the courts.
- 4 Head and Deputy Head of Criminal Justice
- (1) There is to be a Head of Criminal Justice.
- (2) The Head of Criminal Justice is – 35
- (a) the Lord Chief Justice, or
- (b) if the Lord Chief Justice appoints another person, that person.
- (3) The Lord Chief Justice may appoint a person to be Deputy Head of Criminal Justice.
- (4) The Lord Chief Justice must not appoint a person under subsection (2)(b) or (3) unless these conditions are met – 40
- (a) the Lord Chief Justice has consulted the Minister;

- (b) the person to be appointed is an ordinary judge of the Court of Appeal.
- (5) A person appointed under subsection (2)(b) or (3) holds the office to which he is appointed in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

5 Head and Deputy Head of Family Justice

- (1) The President of the Family Division is Head of Family Justice. 5
- (2) The Lord Chief Justice may appoint a person to be Deputy Head of Family Justice.
- (3) The Lord Chief Justice must not appoint a person under subsection (2) unless these conditions are met –
 - (a) the Lord Chief Justice has consulted the Minister; 10
 - (b) the person to be appointed is an ordinary judge of the Court of Appeal.
- (4) A person appointed as Deputy Head of Family Justice holds that office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.

6 Powers to make rules

- (1) Part 1 of Schedule 2 sets out a process for the exercise of rule-making powers. 15
- (2) Part 2 of the Schedule contains amendments of Acts that contain rule-making powers.
- (3) Those amendments –
 - (a) provide for those powers to be exercised in accordance with the process set out in Part 1 of the Schedule, and 20
 - (b) make consequential provision.

7 Powers to give directions

- (1) Part 1 of Schedule 3 sets out a process for the exercise of powers to give directions.
- (2) Part 2 of the Schedule contains amendments of Acts that contain powers to give directions. 25
- (3) Those amendments –
 - (a) provide for those powers to be exercised in accordance with the process set out in Part 1 of the Schedule, and
 - (b) make consequential provision. 30

Appointments

8 Transfer of appointment functions

- (1) Part 1 of Schedule 4 –
 - (a) provides for Her Majesty instead of the Lord Chancellor to make appointments to certain offices, and 35
 - (b) makes other modifications to enactments relating to those offices.
- (2) Part 2 of Schedule 4 –

- (a) provides for the Minister instead of the Lord Chancellor to make appointments to certain offices, and
- (b) makes other modifications to enactments relating to those offices.

Other functions

9 Other functions of the Lord Chancellor 5

Schedule 5 contains amendments which relate to certain other functions of the Lord Chancellor.

The Great Seal

10 The Great Seal

- (1) While a person holds office as the Minister, the Great Seal is to be in his custody. 10
- (2) The functions of the Lord Chancellor in relation to the custody and use of the Great Seal are transferred to the Minister.
- (3) Schedule 6 makes consequential amendments and other amendments relating to the keeper and Commissioners of the Great Seal. 15
- (4) Subsection (1) is subject to the power of Her Majesty to commit the Great Seal to the custody of Commissioners of the Great Seal appointed by letters patent under that seal.
- (5) The functions of such Commissioners (subject to any limitation in the Commission) are the functions transferred to or otherwise conferred on the Minister by subsection (2) or Schedule 6. 20
- (6) So far as may be necessary in consequence of any of those functions becoming exercisable by Commissioners of the Great Seal, an enactment or instrument has effect as if references to the Minister were references to the Commissioners.

Speakership of the House of Lords 25

11 Speakership of the House of Lords

Schedule 7 contains amendments relating to the Speakership of the House of Lords.

Abolition of the office of Lord Chancellor

12 Abolition of office of Lord Chancellor 30

The office of Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is abolished (together with the office of Lord Keeper of the Great Seal).

13 Salary and pension

- (1) Schedule 8 is about the Lord Chancellor's salary and pension.

- (2) Part 1 contains amendments about salary and pension that are consequential on the abolition of the office of Lord Chancellor.
- (3) Part 2 contains special provision about the pension arrangements of the person holding the office of Lord Chancellor at the time of its abolition.

Supplementary

14 Property, rights and liabilities

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to any provision of this Act, other than section 12, by which a function of the Lord Chancellor ceases to be exercisable by him, whether or not that function becomes exercisable by another person.
- (2) On the commencement of the provision, any property, rights or liabilities to which the Lord Chancellor is entitled immediately before that commencement in connection with the function are transferred to the Minister. 10
- (3) On the commencement of section 12 any property, rights or liabilities to which the Lord Chancellor is entitled immediately before that commencement are transferred to the Minister. 15

15 Transfers: supplementary

- (1) This section applies to any provision of this Act by which a function of the Lord Chancellor is transferred to another person (“the transferee”).
- (2) Where the transferee is Her Majesty, references to the transferee in the following provisions of this section are to be read as references to the Minister. 20
- (3) The transfer does not affect the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor before the commencement of the provision.
- (4) So far as is necessary in consequence of the transfer, an enactment or instrument passed or made before the commencement of the provision has effect, subject to any amendment made by this Act, as if –
 - (a) a reference to the Lord Chancellor were a reference to the transferee;
 - (b) a reference to the Lord Chancellor’s Department were a reference to the department of the transferee;
 - (c) a reference to an officer of the Lord Chancellor were a reference to an officer of the transferee. 30
- (5) Anything done by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor in connection with the function has effect, so far as is necessary for continuing its effect after the commencement of the provision, as if done by or in relation to the transferee.
- (6) Anything which relates to the function and which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor at the commencement of the provision may be continued by or in relation to the transferee. 35
- (7) Legal proceedings to which the Lord Chancellor is party in relation to the function at the commencement of the provision may be continued by or against the transferee. 40
- (8) Documents or forms printed for use in connection with the function may be used in connection with it even though they contain (or are to be read as containing) references to the Lord Chancellor, his Department or an officer of his.

- (9) For the purposes of the use of any such documents after the commencement of the provision, those references are to be read as references to the transferee, his department or an officer of his.

16 Part 1: interpretation

In this Part “the Great Seal” means the Great Seal of the United Kingdom.

PART 2

THE SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court

10

17 The Supreme Court

- (1) There is to be a Supreme Court of the United Kingdom.
- (2) The Court consists of 12 judges appointed by Her Majesty by letters patent.
- (3) Her Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council amend subsection (2) so as to increase or further increase the number of judges of the Court.
- (4) No recommendation may be made to Her Majesty in Council to make an Order under subsection (3) unless a draft of the Order has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) Her Majesty may by letters patent appoint one of the judges to be President and one to be Deputy President of the Court.
- (6) The judges other than the President and Deputy President are to be styled “Justices of the Supreme Court”.
- (7) The Court is to be taken to be duly constituted despite any vacancy among the judges of the Court or in the office of President or Deputy President.

18 First members of the Court

25

On the commencement of section 17—

- (a) the persons who immediately before that commencement are Lords of Appeal in Ordinary become judges of the Supreme Court,
- (b) the person who immediately before that commencement is the senior Lord of Appeal in Ordinary becomes the President of the Court, and
- (c) the person who immediately before that commencement is the second senior Lord of Appeal in Ordinary becomes the Deputy President of the Court.

30

Appointment of judges

19 Qualification for appointment

- (1) A person is not qualified to be appointed a judge of the Supreme Court unless he has (at any time) –
- (a) held high judicial office for a period of at least 2 years, or 5
 - (b) been a qualifying practitioner for a period of at least 15 years.
- (2) A person is a qualifying practitioner for the purposes of this section at any time when –
- (a) he has a Supreme Court qualification, within the meaning of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41), 10
 - (b) he is an advocate in Scotland or a solicitor entitled to appear in the Court of Session and the High Court of Justiciary, or
 - (c) he is a member of the Bar of Northern Ireland or a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland.

20 Selection of members of the Court 15

- (1) This section applies to a recommendation for an appointment to one of the following offices –
- (a) judge of the Supreme Court;
 - (b) President of the Court;
 - (c) Deputy President of the Court. 20
- (2) A recommendation may be made only by the Prime Minister.
- (3) The Prime Minister –
- (a) must recommend any person whose name is notified to him under section 23;
 - (b) may not recommend any other person. 25
- (4) A person who is not a judge of the Court must be recommended for appointment as a judge if his name is notified to the Prime Minister for an appointment as President or Deputy President.
- (5) If there is a vacancy in one of the offices mentioned in subsection (1), or it appears to him that there will soon be such a vacancy, the Minister must convene a selection commission for the selection of a person to be recommended. 30
- (6) Schedule 9 is about selection commissions.
- (7) Subsection (5) is subject to Part 3 of that Schedule.
- (8) Sections 21 to 25 apply where a selection commission is convened under this section. 35

21 Selection process

- (1) The commission must –
- (a) determine the selection process to be applied,
 - (b) apply the selection process, and 40
 - (c) make a selection accordingly.

- (2) Selection must be on merit.
 - (3) A person may be selected only if he meets the requirements of section 19.
 - (4) A person may not be selected if he is a member of the commission.
 - (5) In making selections for the appointment of judges of the Court the commission must ensure that between them the judges will have knowledge of, and experience of practice in, the law of each part of the United Kingdom. 5
 - (6) As part of the selection process the commission must consult each of the following –
 - (a) such of the senior judges as are not members of the commission and are not willing to be considered for selection; 10
 - (b) the Minister;
 - (c) the First Minister in Scotland;
 - (d) the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (e) the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland.
 - (7) The commission must have regard to any guidance given by the Minister as to matters to be taken into account (subject to any other provision of this Act) in making a selection under this section or section 25. 15
 - (8) Any selection under this section or section 25 must be of one person only.

22 Report

- (1) After complying with section 21 the commission must submit a report to the Minister. 20
- (2) The report must –
 - (a) state who has been selected;
 - (b) state the senior judges consulted under section 21(6)(a);
 - (c) contain any other information required by the Minister. 25
- (3) The report must be in a form approved by the Minister.
- (4) After submitting the report the commission must provide any further information the Minister may require.
- (5) When he receives the report the Minister must consult each of the following –
 - (a) the senior judges consulted under section 21(6)(a); 30
 - (b) the First Minister in Scotland;
 - (c) the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (d) the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland.

23 The Minister's options

- (1) This section refers to the following stages – 35
 - Stage 1:* where a person has been selected under section 21
 - Stage 2:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 1

- Stage 3:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 2.
- (2) At stage 1 the Minister must do one of the following –
- (a) notify the selection;
 - (b) reject the selection; 5
 - (c) require the commission to reconsider the selection.
- (3) At stage 2 the Minister must do one of the following –
- (a) notify the selection;
 - (b) reject the selection, but only if it was made following a reconsideration at stage 1; 10
 - (c) require the commission to reconsider the selection, but only if it was made following a rejection at stage 1.
- (4) At stage 3 the Minister must notify the selection, unless subsection (5) applies and he makes a notification under it.
- (5) If a person whose selection the Minister required to be reconsidered at stage 1 or 2 was not selected again at the next stage, the Minister may at stage 3 notify that person’s name to the Prime Minister. 15
- (6) In this Part references to the Minister notifying a selection are references to his notifying to the Prime Minister the name of the person selected.
- 24 Exercise of powers to reject or require reconsideration 20
- (1) The power of the Minister under section 23 to reject a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion, the person selected is not suitable for the office concerned.
- (2) The power of the Minister under section 23 to require the commission to reconsider a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion – 25
- (a) there is not enough evidence that the person is suitable for the office concerned,
 - (b) there is evidence that the person is not the best candidate on merit, or
 - (c) there is not enough evidence that if the person were appointed the judges of the Court would between them have knowledge of, and experience of practice in, the law of each part of the United Kingdom. 30
- (3) The Minister must give the commission reasons in writing for rejecting or requiring reconsideration of a selection.
- 25 Selection following rejection or requirement to reconsider 35
- (1) If under section 23 the Minister rejects or requires reconsideration of a selection at stage 1 or 2, the commission must select a person in accordance with this section.
- (2) If the Minister rejects a selection, the commission – 40
- (a) may not select the person rejected, and
 - (b) where the rejection is following reconsideration of a selection, may not select the person (if different) whose selection it reconsidered.

- (3) If the Minister requires a selection to be reconsidered, the commission –
- (a) may select the same person or a different person, but
 - (b) where the requirement is following a rejection, may not select the person rejected.
- (4) The commission must inform the Minister of the person selected following a rejection or requirement to reconsider. 5

Terms of appointment

26 Oath of allegiance and judicial oath

- (1) A person who is appointed as President of the Court must, as soon as may be after accepting office, take the required oaths in the presence of – 10
- (a) the Deputy President, or
 - (b) if there is no Deputy President, the senior ordinary judge.
- (2) A person who is appointed as Deputy President of the Supreme Court must, as soon as may be after accepting office, take the required oaths in the presence of – 15
- (a) the President, or
 - (b) if there is no President, the senior ordinary judge.
- (3) A person who is appointed as a judge of the Supreme Court must, as soon as may be after accepting office, take the required oaths in the presence of – 20
- (a) the President, or
 - (b) if there is no President, the Deputy President, or
 - (c) if there is no President and no Deputy President, the senior ordinary judge.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) apply whether or not the person appointed as President or Deputy President has previously taken the required oaths in accordance with this section after accepting another office. 25
- (5) Subsection (3) does not apply where a person is first appointed as a judge of the Court upon appointment to the office of President or Deputy President.
- (6) In this section “required oaths” means – 30
- (a) the oath of allegiance, and
 - (b) the judicial oath,
- as set out in the Promissory Oaths Act 1868 (c. 72).

27 Tenure

A judge of the Supreme Court holds that office during good behaviour, but may be removed from it on the address of both Houses of Parliament. 35

28 Salaries and allowances

- (1) A judge of the Supreme Court is entitled to a salary.
- (2) The amount of the salary is to be determined by the Minister with the agreement of the Treasury.

- (3) Until otherwise determined under subsection (2), the amount is that of the salary of a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary immediately before the commencement of section 17.
- (4) A determination under subsection (2) may increase but not reduce the amount.
- (5) Salaries payable under this section are to be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom. 5
- (6) Any allowance determined by the Minister with the agreement of the Treasury may be paid to a judge of the Court out of money provided by Parliament.

29 Resignation and retirement

- (1) A judge of the Supreme Court may at any time resign that office by giving the Minister notice in writing to that effect. 10
- (2) The President or Deputy President of the Court may at any time resign that office (whether or not he resigns his office as a judge) by giving the Minister notice in writing to that effect.
- (3) In section 26(4)(a) of and Schedule 5 to the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (c. 8) (retirement), for “Lord of Appeal in Ordinary” substitute “Judge of the Supreme Court”. 15

30 Medical retirement

- (1) This section applies if the Minister is satisfied by means of a medical certificate that a person holding office as a judge of the Supreme Court – 20
 - (a) is disabled by permanent infirmity from the performance of the duties of his office, and
 - (b) is for the time being incapacitated from resigning his office.
- (2) The Minister may by instrument under his hand declare the person’s office to have been vacated. 25
- (3) A declaration by instrument under subsection (2) has the same effect for all purposes as if the person had, on the date of the instrument, resigned his office.
- (4) But such a declaration has no effect unless it is made –
 - (a) in the case of an ordinary judge, with the agreement of the President and Deputy President of the Court; 30
 - (b) in the case of the President, with the agreement of the Deputy President and the senior ordinary judge;
 - (c) in the case of the Deputy President, with the agreement of the President and the senior ordinary judge.

31 Pensions

- (1) In the tables in sections 1 and 16 of the Judicial Pensions Act 1981 (c. 20) (application and interpretation), for “Lord of Appeal in Ordinary” –
 - (a) in the first column, substitute “Judge of the Supreme Court”, and
 - (b) in the second column, in each place substitute “judge of the Supreme Court”. 40

- (2) In Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (c. 8) (qualifying judicial offices: judges), for “Lord of Appeal in Ordinary” substitute “Judge of the Supreme Court”.
- (3) The amendments made by this section to the 1981 and 1993 Acts do not affect the operation of any provision of or made under those Acts, or anything done under such provision, in relation to the office of, or service as, Lord of Appeal in Ordinary. 5

Acting judges

32 Acting judges

- (1) At the request of the President of the Supreme Court – 10
 (a) a person who holds high judicial office, or
 (b) a member of the Privy Council who is a member of the supplementary panel under section 33, may act as a judge of the Court.
- (2) A request under subsection (1) may be made by the Deputy President of the Court if there is no President or the President is unable to make that request. 15
- (3) In section 26(7) of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (requirement not to act in certain capacities after the age of 75) for paragraph (b) substitute –
 “(b) act as a judge of the Supreme Court under section 32 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2004;”. 20
- (4) Every person while acting under this section is, subject to subsections (5) and (6), to be treated for all purposes as a judge of the Supreme Court (and so may perform any of the functions of a judge of the Court).
- (5) A person is not to be treated under subsection (4) as a judge of the Court for the purposes of any statutory provision relating to – 25
 (a) the appointment, retirement, removal or disqualification of judges of the Court,
 (b) the tenure of office and oaths to be taken by judges of the Court, or
 (c) the remuneration, allowances or pensions of judges of the Court.
- (6) Subject to section 27 of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993, a person is not to be treated under subsection (4) as having been a judge of the Court if he has acted in the Court only under this section. 30
- (7) Such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may with the agreement of the Treasury determine may be paid out of money provided by Parliament to any person who acts as a judge of the Court under this section. 35

33 Supplementary panel

- (1) A person becomes a member of the supplementary panel on ceasing to hold high judicial office, but only if, while he holds such office – 40
 (a) his membership of the panel is approved in writing by the President of the Supreme Court, and
 (b) the President of the Court gives the Minister notice in writing of the approval.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who ceases to hold high judicial office when he ceases to be President of the Court.
- (3) Such a person becomes a member of the supplementary panel on ceasing to be President of the Court, unless –
 - (a) while President, he gives the Minister notice that he is not to become a member of the panel, 5
 - (b) he ceases to be President on being removed from office as a judge of the Court on the address of both Houses of Parliament, or
 - (c) his office is declared vacant under section 30.
- (4) A member of the supplementary panel may resign by notice in writing to the President of the Court. 10
- (5) Unless he resigns (and subject to sections 26(7)(b) and 27 of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (c. 8)), a person ceases to be a member of the supplementary panel –
 - (a) at the end of 5 years after the last day on which he holds high judicial office, or 15
 - (b) if earlier, at the end of the day on which he attains the age of 75.

CHAPTER 2

APPOINTMENTS

General provisions

54 Merit and good character

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to any selection under this Part by the Commission or a selection panel (“the selecting body”). 25
- (2) A person must not be selected unless the selecting body is satisfied that he is of good character.
- (3) Selection must be on merit.

55 Guidance about procedures 30

- (1) The Minister may issue guidance about procedures for the performance by the Commission or a selection panel of its functions of –
- (a) identifying persons willing to be considered for selection under this Part, and

- (b) assessing such persons for the purposes of selection.
- (2) The guidance may, among other things, relate to consultation or other steps in determining such procedures.
- (3) The purposes for which guidance may be issued under this section include the encouragement of diversity in the range of persons available for selection. 5
- (4) The Commission and any selection panel must have regard to the guidance in matters to which it relates.
- 56 Guidance: supplementary
- (1) Before issuing any guidance the Minister must –
- (a) consult the Lord Chief Justice; 10
- (b) after doing so, lay a draft of the proposed guidance before each House of Parliament.
- (2) If the draft is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament within the 40-day period the Minister must issue the guidance in the form of the draft.
- (3) In any other case the Minister must take no further steps in relation to the proposed guidance. 15
- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent a new draft of the proposed guidance from being laid before each House of Parliament after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice.
- (5) Guidance comes into force on such date as the Minister may appoint by order. 20
- (6) The Minister may –
- (a) from time to time revise the whole or part of any guidance and re-issue it;
- (b) by order revoke any guidance.
- (7) In this section – 25
- “40-day period” in relation to the draft of any proposed guidance means –
- (a) if the draft is laid before one House on a day later than the day on which it is laid before the other House, the period of 40 days beginning with the later day, and 30
- (b) in any other case, the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before each House,
- no account being taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days; 35
- “guidance” means guidance issued by the Minister under section 55 and includes guidance which has been revised and re-issued.

Lord Chief Justice and Heads of Division

57 Selection of Lord Chief Justice and Heads of Division

- (1) This section applies to a recommendation for an appointment to one of the following offices – 40
- (a) Lord Chief Justice;

- (b) Master of the Rolls;
 - (c) President of the Queen’s Bench Division;
 - (d) President of the Family Division;
 - (e) Chancellor of the High Court.
- (2) A recommendation may be made only under section 61. 5
- (3) If the office of Lord Chief Justice is vacant, the Minister must make a recommendation to fill the vacancy.
- (4) If there is a vacancy in one of the other offices mentioned in subsection (1), the Minister must, unless the Lord Chief Justice agrees otherwise, make a recommendation to fill the vacancy. 10
- (5) A request for the selection of a person to be recommended must be made by the Minister to the Commission.
- (6) Before making a request the Minister must consult the Lord Chief Justice.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply if the request relates only to the office of Lord Chief Justice and that office is vacant. 15
- (8) Sections 58 to 63 apply where the Minister makes a request under this section.
- 58 Selection process
- (1) On receiving a request the Commission must appoint a selection panel.
- (2) The panel must – 20
- (a) determine the selection process to be applied,
 - (b) apply the selection process, and
 - (c) make a selection accordingly.
- (3) Any selection under this section or section 63 must be of one person only (but a request may be for a selection to be made for each of a number of appointments). 25
- (4) If practicable the panel must consult, about the exercise of its functions under this section, the current holder of the office for which a selection is to be made.
- (5) A selection panel is a committee of the Commission.
- 59 Selection panel
- (1) The selection panel must consist of the following – 30
- (a) the most senior England and Wales Supreme Court judge or his nominee;
 - (b) the participating judge;
 - (c) the Chairman of the Commission or his nominee;
 - (d) one other lay member of the Commission designated by the Chairman of the Commission. 35
- (2) Unless subsection (4) applies, the participating judge is the Lord Chief Justice or his nominee.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if – 40
- (a) the Lord Chief Justice is disqualified, or

- (b) there is no Lord Chief Justice.
- (4) In those cases the most senior England and Wales Supreme Court judge must designate a person (but not a person who is disqualified) as the participating judge.
- (5) Only the following may be a nominee under subsection (1)(a) or (2) or designated under subsection (4) – 5
- (a) an England and Wales Supreme Court judge,
 - (b) a Head of Division, or
 - (c) a Lord Justice of Appeal.
- (6) The following also apply to nominees under this section – 10
- (a) a person may not be a nominee if he is disqualified;
 - (b) a person may not be appointed to the panel as the nominee of more than one person;
 - (c) a person appointed to the panel otherwise than as a nominee may not be a nominee. 15
- (7) The most senior England and Wales Supreme Court judge or his nominee is the chairman of the panel.
- (8) On any vote by the panel the chairman of the panel has an additional, casting vote in the event of a tie.
- (9) A person is disqualified for the purposes of this section if – 20
- (a) he is the current holder of the office for which a selection is to be made, or
 - (b) he is willing to be considered for selection.
- (10) In this section “England and Wales Supreme Court judge” means a judge of the Supreme Court who has held high judicial office in England and Wales before appointment to the Court. 25
- 60 Report
- (1) After complying with section 58(2) the selection panel must submit a report to the Minister.
- (2) The report must – 30
- (a) state who has been selected;
 - (b) contain any other information required by the Minister.
- (3) The report must be in a form approved by the Minister.
- (4) After submitting the report the panel must provide any further information the Minister may require. 35
- 61 The Minister’s options
- (1) This section refers to the following stages –

Stage 1: where a person has been selected under section 58

- Stage 2:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 1
- Stage 3:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 2.
- (2) At stage 1 the Minister must do one of the following – 5
- (a) recommend the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection;
 - (c) require the selection panel to reconsider the selection.
- (3) At stage 2 the Minister must do one of the following – 10
- (a) recommend the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection, but only if it was made following a reconsideration at stage 1;
 - (c) require the selection panel to reconsider the selection, but only if it was made following a rejection at stage 1.
- (4) At stage 3 the Minister must recommend the person selected, unless subsection (5) applies and he makes a recommendation under it. 15
- (5) If a person whose selection the Minister required to be reconsidered at stage 1 or 2 was not selected again at the next stage, the Minister may recommend that person at stage 3.
- (6) In this section references to recommending a person are references to making the recommendation for which he has been selected. 20
- 62 Exercise of powers to reject or require reconsideration
- (1) The power of the Minister under section 61 to reject a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion, the person selected is not suitable for the office concerned. 25
- (2) The power of the Minister under section 61 to require the selection panel to reconsider a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion – 30
- (a) there is not enough evidence that the person is suitable for the office concerned, or
 - (b) there is evidence that the person is not the best candidate on merit.
- (3) The Minister must give the selection panel reasons in writing for rejecting or requiring reconsideration of a selection.
- 63 Selection following rejection or requirement to reconsider
- (1) If under section 61 the Minister rejects or requires reconsideration of a selection at stage 1 or 2, the selection panel must select a person in accordance with this section. 35
- (2) If the Minister rejects a selection, the selection panel – 40
- (a) may not select the person rejected, and
 - (b) where the rejection is following reconsideration of a selection, may not select the person (if different) whose selection it reconsidered.

- (3) If the Minister requires a selection to be reconsidered, the selection panel –
- (a) may select the same person or a different person, but
 - (b) where the requirement is following a rejection, may not select the person rejected.
- (4) The selection panel must inform the Minister of the person selected following a rejection or a requirement to reconsider. 5
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) do not prevent a person being selected on a subsequent request under section 57.

Lords Justices of Appeal

64 Selection of Lords Justices of Appeal 10

- (1) This section applies to a recommendation for appointment as a Lord Justice of Appeal.
- (2) A recommendation may be made only under section 68.
- (3) If there is a vacancy among the Lords Justices of Appeal the Minister must, unless the Lord Chief Justice agrees otherwise, make a recommendation to fill the vacancy. 15
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a vacancy arises only on a Lord Justice of Appeal vacating his office after the commencement of this section.
- (5) A request for the selection of a person to be recommended must be made by the Minister to the Commission. 20
- (6) Before making a request the Minister must consult the Lord Chief Justice.
- (7) Sections 65 to 70 apply where the Minister makes a request under this section.

65 Selection process

- (1) On receiving a request the Commission must appoint a selection panel.
- (2) The panel must – 25
 - (a) determine the selection process to be applied,
 - (b) apply the selection process, and
 - (c) make a selection accordingly.
- (3) Any selection under this section or section 70 must be of one person only (but a request may be for a selection to be made for each of a number of appointments). 30
- (4) A selection panel is a committee of the Commission.

66 Selection panel

- (1) The selection panel must consist of the following – 35
 - (a) the Lord Chief Justice or his nominee;
 - (b) a Head of Division or Lord Justice of Appeal designated by the Lord Chief Justice;
 - (c) the Chairman of the Commission or his nominee;

- (d) one other lay member of the Commission designated by the Chairman of the Commission.
- (2) A nominee of the Lord Chief Justice must be a Head of Division or a Lord Justice of Appeal.
- (3) A person may not be appointed to the panel if he is willing to be considered for selection. 5
- (4) A person may not be appointed to the panel as the nominee of more than one person.
- (5) A person appointed to the panel otherwise than as a nominee may not be a nominee. 10
- (6) The Lord Chief Justice or his nominee is the chairman of the panel.
- (7) On any vote by the panel the chairman of the panel has an additional, casting vote in the event of a tie.
- 67 Report
- (1) After complying with section 65(2) the selection panel must submit a report to the Minister. 15
- (2) The report must –
- (a) state who has been selected;
 - (b) contain any other information required by the Minister.
- (3) The report must be in a form approved by the Minister. 20
- (4) After submitting the report the panel must provide any further information the Minister may require.
- 68 The Minister's options
- (1) This section refers to the following stages –
- Stage 1:* where a person has been selected under section 65 25
 - Stage 2:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 1
 - Stage 3:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 2.
- (2) At stage 1 the Minister must do one of the following – 30
- (a) recommend the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection;
 - (c) require the selection panel to reconsider the selection.
- (3) At stage 2 the Minister must do one of the following – 35
- (a) recommend the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection, but only if it was made following a reconsideration at stage 1;

- (c) require the selection panel to reconsider the selection, but only if it was made following a rejection at stage 1.
- (4) At stage 3 the Minister must recommend the person selected, unless subsection (5) applies and he makes a recommendation under it.
- (5) If a person whose selection the Minister required to be reconsidered at stage 1 or 2 was not selected again at the next stage, the Minister may recommend that person at stage 3. 5
- (6) In this section references to recommending a person are references to making the recommendation for which he has been selected.
- 69 Exercise of powers to reject or require reconsideration 10
- (1) The power of the Minister under section 68 to reject a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion, the person selected is not suitable for the office concerned.
- (2) The power of the Minister under section 68 to require the selection panel to reconsider a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion – 15
- (a) there is not enough evidence that the person is suitable for the office concerned, or
- (b) there is evidence that the person is not the best candidate on merit.
- (3) The Minister must give the selection panel reasons in writing for rejecting or requiring reconsideration of a selection. 20
- 70 Selection following rejection or requirement to reconsider
- (1) If under section 68 the Minister rejects or requires reconsideration of a selection at stage 1 or 2, the selection panel must select a person in accordance with this section. 25
- (2) If the Minister rejects a selection, the selection panel –
- (a) may not select the person rejected, and
- (b) where the rejection is following reconsideration of a selection, may not select the person (if different) whose selection it reconsidered.
- (3) If the Minister requires a selection to be reconsidered, the selection panel – 30
- (a) may select the same person or a different person, but
- (b) where the requirement is following a rejection, may not select the person rejected.
- (4) The selection panel must inform the Minister of the person selected following a rejection or a requirement to reconsider. 35
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not prevent a person being selected on a subsequent request under section 64.
- Puisne judges and other office holders*
- 71 Selection of puisne judges and other office holders
- (1) Section 72 applies to – 40

- (a) a recommendation for an appointment to an office listed in Part 1 of Schedule 14 in exercise of Her Majesty’s function under the enactment listed opposite that office;
 - (b) an appointment to an office listed in Part 2 or 3 of that Schedule in exercise of the Minister’s function under the enactment listed opposite that office. 5
- (2) The Minister may by order make any of the following amendments to Schedule 14—
 - (a) an amendment which adds a reference to an enactment under which appointments are made to an office; 10
 - (b) an amendment which adds a reference to an office to which appointments are made under an enactment;
 - (c) an amendment which removes or amends a reference to an office, or to an office and an enactment under which appointments are made to that office, and is consequential on the abolition or change of name of the office. 15
- (3) In this section “enactment” includes an enactment contained in subordinate legislation (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30)).

72 Request

- (1) A recommendation or appointment to which this section applies may be made only under section 75. 20
- (2) If there is a vacancy in an office listed in Part 1 of Schedule 14 the Minister must, unless the Lord Chief Justice agrees otherwise, make a recommendation to fill the vacancy.
- (3) If there is a vacancy in an office listed in Part 2 or 3 of that Schedule the Minister must, unless the Lord Chief Justice agrees otherwise, make an appointment to fill the vacancy. 25
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) a vacancy arises only on the holder of an office vacating it after the commencement of this section.
- (5) A request for the selection of a person to be recommended must be made by the Minister to the Commission. 30
- (6) Before making a request the Minister must consult the Lord Chief Justice.
- (7) Sections 73 to 78 apply where the Minister makes a request under this section.
- (8) Those sections are subject to section 79 (withdrawal of request).

73 Selection process

- (1) On receiving a request the Commission must—
 - (a) determine the selection process to be applied,
 - (b) apply the selection process, and
 - (c) make a selection accordingly.
- (2) But if or so far as the Commission decides that the selection process has not identified candidates of sufficient merit for it to comply with subsection (1)(c), section 78 applies and subsection (1)(c) does not apply. 40

- (3) At least once during any selection process (but before making a selection or a decision under subsection (2)) the Commission must consult –
- (a) the Lord Chief Justice; and
 - (b) a person (other than the Lord Chief Justice) who has held the office for which a selection is to be made or has other relevant experience. 5
- (4) Any selection under this section or section 77 must be of one person only (but a request may be for a selection to be made for each of a number of appointments).

74 Report

- (1) After complying with section 73 the Commission must submit a report to the Minister. 10
- (2) The report must –
- (a) describe the selection process;
 - (b) state any selection made;
 - (c) state any decision under section 73(2); 15
 - (d) state any recommendation made in consultation under section 73(3) by a person consulted;
 - (e) give reasons in any case where the Commission has not followed such a recommendation;
 - (f) contain any other information required by the Minister. 20
- (3) The report must be in a form approved by the Minister.
- (4) After submitting the report the Commission must provide any further information the Minister may require.

75 The Minister's options

- (1) This section refers to the following stages – 25
- Stage 1:* where a person has been selected under section 73
 - Stage 2:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 1
 - Stage 3:* where a person has been selected following a rejection or reconsideration at stage 2. 30
- (2) At stage 1 the Minister must do one of the following –
- (a) recommend or appoint the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection;
 - (c) require the Commission to reconsider the selection.
- (3) At stage 2 the Minister must do one of the following – 35
- (a) recommend or appoint the person selected;
 - (b) reject the selection, but only if it was made following a reconsideration at stage 1;
 - (c) require the Commission to reconsider the selection, but only if it was made following a rejection at stage 1. 40

- (4) At stage 3 the Minister must recommend or appoint the person selected, unless subsection (5) applies and he makes a recommendation or appointment under it.
- (5) If a person whose selection the Minister required to be reconsidered at stage 1 or 2 was not selected again at the next stage, the Minister may recommend or appoint that person at stage 3. 5
- (6) In this section references to recommending or appointing a person are references to making the recommendation or appointment (as the case may be) for which he has been selected.
- 76 Exercise of powers to reject or require reconsideration 10
- (1) The power of the Minister under section 75 to reject a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion, the person selected is not suitable for the office concerned.
- (2) The power of the Minister under section 75 to require the Commission to reconsider a selection at stage 1 or 2 is exercisable only on the grounds that, in the Minister’s opinion – 15
- (a) there is not enough evidence that the person is suitable for the office concerned, or
 - (b) there is evidence that the person is not the best candidate on merit.
- (3) The Minister must give the Commission reasons in writing for rejecting or requiring reconsideration of a selection. 20
- 77 Selection following rejection or requirement to reconsider
- (1) If under section 75 the Minister rejects or requires reconsideration of a selection at stage 1 or 2, the selection panel must select a person in accordance with this section. 25
- (2) If the Minister rejects a selection, the Commission –
- (a) may not select the person rejected, and
 - (b) where the rejection is following a requirement to reconsider, may not select the person (if different) whose selection it reconsidered.
- (3) If the Minister requires a selection to be reconsidered, the Commission – 30
- (a) may select the same person or a different person, but
 - (b) where the requirement is following a rejection, may not select the person rejected.
- (4) The Commission must inform the Minister of any person selected following a rejection or a requirement to reconsider. 35
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not prevent a person being selected on a subsequent request under section 72.
- 78 Reconsideration of decision not to select
- (1) The Minister may require the Commission to reconsider a decision that the selection process has not identified candidates of sufficient merit for it to make a selection. 40

- (2) The Commission must inform the Minister of any person selected on reconsideration under this section.
- (3) Sections 75 to 77 apply to such a person as if the Commission had selected him instead of making the decision reconsidered.

79 Withdrawal of request 5

- (1) The Minister may not withdraw a request if a recommendation or appointment has been made in pursuance of a selection made on the request.
- (2) At any other time he may withdraw a request after consulting the Lord Chief Justice.
- (3) Withdrawal of a request must be by notice in writing to the Commission. 10
- (4) The notice must state the Minister’s reasons for withdrawing the request.
- (5) If a request is withdrawn –
 - (a) sections 73 to 78 cease to apply in relation to it, and
 - (b) any selection made on it is to be disregarded.
- (6) Withdrawal of a request does not affect the power of the Minister to make another request in the same or different terms. 15
- (7) In this section “request” means a request under section 72.

Complaints and references

80 Complaints: interpretation 20

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Part. 20
- (2) A Commission complaint is a complaint by a qualifying complainant of maladministration by the Commission or a committee of the Commission.
- (3) A departmental complaint is a complaint by a qualifying complainant of maladministration by the Minister or his department in connection with any of the following – 25
 - (a) selection under this Part;
 - (b) recommendation for or appointment to an office listed in Schedule 14.
- (4) A qualifying complainant is a complainant who claims to have been adversely affected, as an applicant for selection or as a person selected under this Part, by the maladministration complained of. 30

81 Complaints to the Commission or the Minister 35

- (1) The Commission must make arrangements for investigating any Commission complaint made to it.
- (2) The Minister must make arrangements for investigating any departmental complaint made to him. 35
- (3) Arrangements under this section need not apply to a complaint made more than 28 days after the matter complained of.

82 Complaints to the Ombudsman

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to a complaint which the complainant –
 - (a) has made to the Commission or the Minister in accordance with arrangements under section 81, and
 - (b) makes to the Ombudsman not more than 28 days after being notified of the Commission’s or Minister’s decision on the complaint. 5
- (2) If the Ombudsman considers that investigation of the complaint is not necessary, he must inform the complainant.
- (3) Otherwise he must investigate the complaint.
- (4) The Ombudsman may investigate a complaint which the complainant – 10
 - (a) has made to the Commission or the Minister in accordance with arrangements under section 81, and
 - (b) makes to the Ombudsman at any time.
- (5) The Ombudsman may investigate a transferred complaint made to him, and no such complaint may be made under the Judicial Appointments Order after the commencement of this section. 15
- (6) The Judicial Appointments Order is the Judicial Appointments Order in Council 2001, which sets out the functions of Her Majesty’s Commissioners for Judicial Appointments.
- (7) A transferred complaint is a complaint that lay to those Commissioners (whether or not it was made to them) in respect of the application of appointment procedures before the commencement of this section, but not a complaint that those Commissioners had declined to investigate or on which they had concluded their investigation. 20
- (8) Any complaint to the Ombudsman under this section must be in a form approved by him. 25

83 Report and recommendations

- (1) The Ombudsman must prepare a report on any complaint he has investigated under section 82.
- (2) The report must state – 30
 - (a) what findings the Ombudsman has made;
 - (b) whether he considers the complaint should be upheld in whole or part;
 - (c) if he does, what if any action he recommends should be taken by the Commission or the Minister as a result of the complaint.
- (3) The recommendations that may be made under subsection (2)(c) include recommendations for the payment of compensation. 35
- (4) Such a recommendation must relate to loss which appears to the Ombudsman to have been suffered by the complainant as a result of maladministration and not as a result of any failure to be appointed to an office to which the complaint related. 40

84 Report procedure

- (1) This section applies to a report under section 83.

- (2) The Ombudsman must submit a draft of the report –
- (a) to the Minister, and
 - (b) if the complaint was a Commission complaint, to the Commission.
- (3) In finalising the report the Ombudsman –
- (a) must have regard to any proposal by the Minister or the Commission for changes in the draft report; 5
 - (b) must include in the report a statement of any such proposal not given effect to.
- (4) The report must be signed by the Ombudsman.
- (5) If the complaint was a Commission complaint the Ombudsman must send the report in duplicate to the Minister and the Commission. 10
- (6) Otherwise the Ombudsman must send the report to the Minister.
- (7) The Ombudsman must send a copy of the report to the complainant, but that copy must not include confidential information within the meaning of section 99 which relates to an individual other than the complainant. 15
- 85 References by the Minister
- (1) If the Minister refers to the Ombudsman any matter relating to the procedures of the Commission or a committee of the Commission, the Ombudsman must investigate it.
- (2) The matter may relate to such procedures generally or in a particular case. 20
- (3) The Ombudsman must report to the Minister on any investigation under this section.
- (4) The report must state –
- (a) what findings the Ombudsman has made;
 - (b) what if any action he recommends should be taken by any person in relation to the matter. 25
- (5) The report must be signed by the Ombudsman.
- 86 Information
- The Commission and the Minister must provide the Ombudsman with such information as he may reasonably require relating to the subject matter of any investigation by him under section 82 or 85. 30
- Miscellaneous*
- 87 Consultation on appointment of lay justices
- In section 10 of the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) (appointment of lay justices etc.) after subsection (2) insert – 35
- “(2A) The Secretary of State for Constitutional Affairs must ensure that arrangements for the exercise, so far as affecting any local justice area, of functions under subsections (1) and (2) include arrangements for consulting persons appearing to him to have special knowledge of matters relevant to the exercise of those functions in relation to that area.”

88 Confidentiality

- (1) A person who is or has been a Commissioner, a member of the Commission’s staff or an agent of the Commission must not disclose confidential information except with lawful authority. 5
- (2) Information is confidential if each of the following applies –
 - (a) it has been obtained by or provided to the Commission under or for the purposes of this Part;
 - (b) it relates to an identified or identifiable individual; 10
 - (c) it is not, and has never been, available to the public from other sources.
- (3) Confidential information is disclosed with lawful authority only if and to the extent that any of the following applies –
 - (a) the disclosure is with the consent of the individual;
 - (b) the disclosure is for (and is necessary for) the discharge of functions of the Commission under this Part; 15
 - (c) the disclosure is for (and is necessary for) the purposes of proceedings (whether civil or criminal and whether or not arising under this Part).
- (4) A contravention of this section in respect of any information is actionable subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty. 20
- (5) But it is actionable only at the suit of the individual to whom the information relates.

89 Disclosure of information to the Commission

- (1) Information which is held by or on behalf of a permitted person (whether obtained before or after this section comes into force) may be disclosed to the Commission or a committee of the Commission for the purposes of selection under this Part. 25
- (2) A disclosure under this section is not to be taken to breach any restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed). 30
- (3) But nothing in this section authorises the making of a disclosure –
 - (a) which contravenes the Data Protection Act 1998 (c. 29), or
 - (b) which is prohibited by Part 1 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (c. 23).
- (4) This section does not affect a power to disclose which exists apart from this section. 35
- (5) The following are permitted persons –
 - (a) a chief officer of police of a police force in England and Wales;
 - (b) a chief constable of a police force in Scotland;
 - (c) the Chief Constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland; 40
 - (d) the Director General of the National Criminal Intelligence Service;
 - (e) the Director General of the National Crime Squad;
 - (f) the Commissioners of Inland Revenue;

- (g) the Commissioners of Customs and Excise.
- (6) The Minister may by order designate as permitted persons other persons who exercise functions which he considers are of a public nature (including a body or person discharging regulatory functions in relation to any description of activities). 5
- (7) Information must not be disclosed under this section on behalf of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or on behalf of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise unless the Commissioners concerned authorise the disclosure.
- (8) The power to authorise a disclosure under subsection (7) may be delegated (either generally or for a specific purpose) – 10
- (a) in the case of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, to an officer of the Board of Inland Revenue,
- (b) in the case of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, to a customs officer. 15
- (9) For the purposes of this section a customs officer is a person commissioned by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise under section 6(3) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (c. 2).

DISCIPLINE 20

Procedures

90 Disciplinary powers

- (1) Any power of the Minister to remove from office the holder of an office listed in Schedule 14 is exercisable only after the Minister has complied with prescribed procedures. 25
- (2) The Lord Chief Justice may exercise any of the following powers but only with the agreement of the Minister and only after complying with prescribed procedures.
- (3) The Lord Chief Justice may give a judicial office holder any of the following for disciplinary purposes – 30
- (a) advice;
- (b) a warning;
- (c) a formal reprimand.
- (4) He may suspend a judicial office holder for any period during which any of the following applies – 35
- (a) the office holder is subject to criminal proceedings;
- (b) the office holder is serving a sentence imposed in criminal proceedings;
- (c) the office holder has been convicted of an offence and is subject to disciplinary procedures to determine whether he should be removed from office. 40
- (5) He may suspend a judicial office holder for any period if –
- (a) the office holder has been convicted of a criminal offence,

- (b) it has been determined under prescribed procedures that the office holder should not be removed from office, and
 - (c) it appears to the Lord Chief Justice with the agreement of the Minister that the suspension is necessary for maintaining confidence in the judiciary. 5
- (6) He may suspend a senior judge for any period during which the judge is subject to proceedings for an Address.
- (7) He may suspend the holder of an office listed in Schedule 14 for any period during which the office holder –
 - (a) is under investigation for an offence, or 10
 - (b) is subject to disciplinary procedures.
- (8) While a judicial office holder of any description is suspended under this section he may not exercise any functions of his office.

91 Disciplinary powers: interpretation

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of section 90. 15
- (2) A judicial office holder is subject to criminal proceedings from the time when he is committed for trial on indictment for an offence to the time when the proceedings against him for the offence, including any appeal by him or by the prosecution, are concluded.
- (3) A senior judge is subject to proceedings for an Address from the time when notice of a motion is given in each House of Parliament for an Address for the removal of the judge from office, until the earliest of the following events –
 - (a) either notice is withdrawn;
 - (b) either motion is withdrawn or lapses;
 - (c) either motion is amended or disagreed to; 25
 - (d) where an Address is presented by each House, a message is brought to each House from Her Majesty in answer to the Address.
- (4) “Judicial office holder” means –
 - (a) a senior judge, or
 - (b) the holder of an office listed in Schedule 14, other than a puisne judge of the High Court. 30
- (5) “Senior judge” means any of these –
 - (a) Master of the Rolls;
 - (b) President of the Queen’s Bench Division;
 - (c) President of the Family Division; 35
 - (d) Chancellor of the High Court;
 - (e) Lord Justice of Appeal;
 - (f) puisne judge of the High Court.
- (6) “Sentence” includes any sentence other than a fine (and “serving” is to be read accordingly). 40
- (7) “Subject to disciplinary procedures” and “under investigation for an offence” have such meaning as may be prescribed.

92 Regulations about procedures

- (1) The Lord Chief Justice may, with the agreement of the Minister, make regulations providing for the procedures that are to be followed in the investigation and determination by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister of allegations by any person of misconduct by judicial office holders. 5
- (2) The regulations are to be made in the form of a statutory instrument to which the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 (c. 36) applies as if the regulations were made by a Minister of the Crown.
- (3) Any such statutory instrument is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament. 10

93 Contents of regulations

- (1) Regulations under section 92 may include provision as to any of the following—
 - (a) circumstances in which an investigation must or may be undertaken (on the making of a complaint or otherwise); 15
 - (b) steps to be taken by a complainant before a complaint is to be investigated;
 - (c) the conduct of an investigation, including steps to be taken by the office holder under investigation or by a complainant or other person;
 - (d) time limits for taking any step and procedures for extending time limits; 20
 - (e) persons by whom an investigation or part of an investigation is to be conducted;
 - (f) matters to be determined by the Lord Chief Justice, the Minister, the office holder under investigation or any other person; 25
 - (g) requirements as to records of investigations;
 - (h) requirements as to confidentiality of communications or proceedings;
 - (i) requirements as to the publication of information or its provision to any person.
- (2) The regulations— 30
 - (a) may require a decision by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister as to the exercise of functions under section 90, or functions mentioned in subsection (1) of that section, to be taken in accordance with findings made pursuant to prescribed procedures;
 - (b) may require that prescribed steps be taken by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister in exercising those functions or before exercising them. 35
- (3) The regulations may provide for any prescribed requirement not to apply if the Lord Chief Justice and the Minister so agree.
- (4) Where the regulations impose any requirement on the office holder under investigation or on a complainant, a person contravening the requirement does not incur liability other than liability to such procedural penalty if any (which may include the suspension or dismissal of a complaint)— 40
 - (a) as may be prescribed by the regulations, or
 - (b) as may be determined by the Lord Chief Justice and the Minister or either of them in accordance with provisions so prescribed. 45
- (5) The regulations may make different provision for different purposes.

- (6) Nothing in this section limits the generality of section 92.

94 Procedural rules

- (1) Regulations under section 92 may provide for provision of a prescribed description that may be included in the regulations to be made instead by rules made by the Lord Chief Justice with the agreement of the Minister. 5
- (2) But the provision that may be made by rules does not include –
- (a) provision within section 93(2);
 - (b) provision made for the purposes of section 93(4).
- (3) The rules are to be published in such manner as the Lord Chief Justice may determine with the agreement of the Minister. 10

Complaints and references

95 Investigations by the Ombudsman relating to conduct

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to a complaint by a person within subsection (4) of –
- (a) a failure by the Lord Chief Justice, the Minister or any other person to comply with prescribed procedures, or 15
 - (b) other maladministration in an investigation or determination to which such procedures apply.
- (2) If the Ombudsman considers that investigation of the complaint is not necessary, he must inform the complainant. 20
- (3) Otherwise he must investigate the complaint.
- (4) The persons who may make a complaint under this section are these –
- (a) the judicial office holder who was the subject of the investigation or determination concerned;
 - (b) a complainant under regulations under section 92. 25
- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to a complaint such as is mentioned there if it is made to the Ombudsman more than 28 days after the latest of –
- (a) the matter complained of;
 - (b) the complainant being notified of the conclusion or other termination of an investigation to which the complaint relates; 30
 - (c) the complainant being notified of a determination to which the complaint relates.
- (6) A complaint under this section must be in a form approved by the Ombudsman.

96 Report and recommendations 35

- (1) The Ombudsman must prepare a report on any complaint he has investigated under section 95.
- (2) The report must state –
- (a) what findings the Ombudsman has made;
 - (b) whether he considers the complaint should be upheld in whole or part; 40

- (c) if he does, what if any action he recommends should be taken by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister as a result of the complaint.
- (3) The recommendations that may be made under subsection (2)(c) include recommendations for the payment of compensation.
- (4) Such a recommendation must relate to loss which appears to the Ombudsman to have been suffered by the complainant as a result of maladministration. 5
- 97 Report procedure
- (1) This section applies to a report under section 96.
- (2) The Ombudsman must submit a draft of the report to the Lord Chief Justice and to the Minister. 10
- (3) In finalising the report the Ombudsman –
- (a) must have regard to any proposal by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister for changes in the draft report;
- (b) must include in the report a statement of any such proposal not given effect to. 15
- (4) The report must be signed by the Ombudsman.
- (5) The Ombudsman must send the report in duplicate to the Lord Chief Justice and to the Minister.
- (6) The Ombudsman must send a copy of the report to the complainant, but that copy must not include confidential information within the meaning of section 99 which relates to an individual other than the complainant. 20
- 98 References to the Ombudsman relating to conduct
- (1) The Ombudsman must investigate any matter referred to him by the Lord Chief Justice or the Minister relating to an investigation or determination to which prescribed procedures apply. 25
- (2) The matter may relate to the investigation or determination of a particular complaint or complaints of any description.
- (3) The Ombudsman must report to the Lord Chief Justice and the Minister on any investigation under this section.
- (4) The report must state – 30
- (a) what findings the Ombudsman has made;
- (b) what if any action he recommends should be taken by any person in relation to the matter.
- (5) The report must be signed by the Ombudsman.

GENERAL

99 Confidentiality

- (1) A person who is or has been the Ombudsman, a member of the Ombudsman’s staff or an agent of the Ombudsman must not disclose confidential information except with lawful authority. 5
- (2) Information is confidential if each of the following applies –
 - (a) it has been obtained by or provided to the Ombudsman under or for the purposes of this Part;
 - (b) it relates to an identified or identifiable individual; 10
 - (c) it is not, and has never been, available to the public from other sources.
- (3) Confidential information is disclosed with lawful authority only if and to the extent that any of the following applies –
 - (a) the disclosure is with the consent of the individual;
 - (b) the disclosure is for (and is necessary for) the discharge of functions of the Ombudsman under this Part; 15
 - (c) the disclosure is for (and is necessary for) the purposes of proceedings (whether civil or criminal and whether or not arising under this Part).
- (4) A contravention of this section in respect of any information is actionable subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty. 20
- (5) But it is actionable only at the suit of the individual to whom the information relates.

100 Interpretation of Part 3

- In this Part – 25
- “appoint” includes nominate or designate (and “appointment” is to be read accordingly);
- the “Commission” means the Judicial Appointments Commission;
- “Head of Division” means any of these –
- (a) the Master of the Rolls; 30
 - (b) the President of the Queen’s Bench Division;
 - (c) the President of the Family Division;
 - (d) the Chancellor of the High Court;
- “high judicial office” has the meaning given by section 51;
- “lay member” of the Commission has the meaning given by paragraph 4 of Schedule 12; 35
- “office” includes a position of any description;
- the “Ombudsman” means the Judicial Appointments and Conduct Ombudsman;
- “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations under section 92 or by rules under section 94. 40

PART 4

OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE JUDICIARY

101 Parliamentary disqualification

- (1) In Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (judicial offices disqualifying for membership) at the beginning insert – 5
 “Judge of the Supreme Court.
 Member of the supplementary panel under section 33 of the Constitutional Reform Act 2004.”
- (2) A member of the House of Lords is, while he holds any of the judicial offices specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975, disqualified for sitting or voting in – 10
 (a) the House of Lords,
 (b) a committee of that House, or
 (c) a joint committee of both Houses.
- (3) A member of the House of Lords who is disqualified under subsection (2) is not for that reason disqualified for receiving a writ of summons to attend that House, but any such writ is subject to that subsection. 15

102 Judicial Committee of the Privy Council

Schedule 15 contains amendments about the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. 20

GENERAL

103 Functions of the Minister not to be transferred by order

Section 1 of the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975 (c. 26) (powers to transfer functions between Ministers of the Crown) does not apply to functions conferred on the Minister by any provision of this Act other than Schedule 5 (including any amendment made by any such provision of this Act to another enactment). 25

104 Interpretation

In this Act – 30
 “functions” includes powers and duties;
 “the Minister” means the Secretary of State for Constitutional Affairs.

105 Supplementary provision etc

- (1) The Minister may by order make – 35
 (a) any supplementary, incidental or consequential provision, and
 (b) any transitory, transitional or saving provision, which he considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of, in consequence of, or for giving full effect to, any provision of this Act.

- (2) An order under this section may in particular –
- (a) provide for any provision of this Act which comes into force before another such provision has come into force to have effect, until that other provision has come into force, with such modifications as are specified in the order; 5
 - (b) amend or repeal any of the following –
 - (i) an enactment other than one contained in an Act passed in a Session after that in which this Act is passed; 10
 - (ii) subordinate legislation other than subordinate legislation made under an Act passed in a Session after that in which this Act is passed;
 - (iii) any other instrument or document, including a prerogative instrument. 15
- (3) The amendments that may be made by virtue of subsection (2)(b) are in addition to those made by or under any other provision of this Act.
- (4) In this section –
- “enactment” has the same meaning as in the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30) and also includes a local, personal or private Act; 20

SCHEDULE 2

Section 6

POWERS TO MAKE RULES

PART 1

THE PROCESS

Interpretation	5
1 In this Part “designated rules” means rules under another Act which are, by virtue of provision in that Act, to be made in accordance with this Part.
The process
2 (1) It is for the Lord Chief Justice, or a judicial office holder nominated by the Lord Chief Justice with the agreement of the Minister, to make designated rules.	10
(2) The Lord Chief Justice may nominate a judicial office holder in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) –
(a) to make designated rules generally, or	15
(b) to make designated rules under a particular enactment.
(3) In this Part –
(a) “judicial office holder” has the same meaning as in section 91(4);
(b) references to the Lord Chief Justice’s nominee, in relation to designated rules, means a judicial office holder nominated by the Lord Chief Justice under sub-paragraph (1) to make those rules.	20
3 (1) The Lord Chief Justice, or his nominee, may make designated rules only with the agreement of the Minister.
(2) If the Minister does not agree designated rules made by the Lord Chief Justice, or by his nominee, the Minister must give that person written reasons why he does not agree the rules.	25
4 (1) Designated rules made by the Lord Chief Justice, or by his nominee, and agreed by the Minister –
(a) come into force on such day as the Minister directs, and
(b) are to be contained in a statutory instrument to which the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 (c. 36) applies as if the instrument contained rules made by a Minister of the Crown.	30
(2) A statutory instrument containing designated rules is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
5 (1) This paragraph applies if the Minister gives the Lord Chief Justice, or his nominee, written notice that he thinks it is expedient for designated rules to include provision that would achieve a purpose specified in the notice.	35
(2) The Lord Chief Justice, or his nominee, must make such designated rules as he considers necessary to achieve the specified purpose.
(3) Those rules must be –	40
(a) made within a reasonable period after the Minister gives notice under sub-paragraph (1);
(b) made in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

PART 2 25

PENSION ARRANGEMENTS OF LAST LORD CHANCELLOR: SPECIAL PROVISION

Interpretation

- 9 In this Part—
- “abolition day” means the day when section 12 comes into force in relation to the office of Lord Chancellor; 30
- “last Lord Chancellor” means the person holding the office of Lord Chancellor at its abolition;
- “Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund” means the fund with that name referred to in section 1 of the Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1987 (c. 45); 35
- “Parliamentary pension regulations” means regulations under section 2 of the Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1987;
- “Parliamentary pension rights” means rights to a pension payable from the Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund.

Extinguishment of pension rights accrued as Lord Chancellor

- 10 (1) Any pension rights that have accrued to the last Lord Chancellor under enactments relating to the pension arrangements of the person holding the office of Lord Chancellor are extinguished.
- (2) Regulation N4(3) of the Parliamentary Pensions (Consolidation and Amendment) Regulations 1993 (S.I. 1993/3253) does not apply in relation to the last Lord Chancellor when he ceases to hold the office of Lord Chancellor at its abolition. 5

Replacement by new Parliamentary pension rights

- 11 (1) The Government Actuary must determine the Parliamentary pension rights that would have accrued to a member of the House of Lords (“the notional Secretary of State”) who – 10
- (a) was appointed to the office of Secretary of State on the day when the last Lord Chancellor was appointed to the office of Lord Chancellor, and 15
- (b) ceased to hold the office of Secretary of State on the abolition day.
- (2) In making a determination under sub-paragraph (1) the Government Actuary is to assume that the notional Secretary of State –
- (a) was at any particular time paid the full salary to which a Secretary of State in the House of Lords was entitled at that time; and 20
- (b) made the full amount of contributions required under Parliamentary pension regulations relating to the accrual of Parliamentary pension rights.
- (3) The Government Actuary must then also determine the following –
- (a) the value on the abolition day of the rights determined under sub-paragraph (1); 25
- (b) the amount that, on the abolition day, represents the contributions that the notional Secretary of State would have been required to make under the appropriate Parliamentary pension regulations in order to accrue those rights; 30
- (c) the amount that, on the abolition day, represents the contributions (if any) made by the last Lord Chancellor under section 23 of the Judicial Pensions Act 1981 (c. 20) in respect of the period when he held the office of Lord Chancellor.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (8) applies if both the following conditions are met. 35
- (5) The first condition is that the amount produced by the following calculation is paid from the Consolidated Fund to the Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund –
- $$(a - b) + c$$
- (6) The second condition is that the amount produced by the following calculation is paid by the last Lord Chancellor to the Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund – 40
- $$b - c$$
- (7) For the purposes of the calculations in sub-paragraphs (5) and (6) – 45
- “a” is an amount equal to the value determined under sub-paragraph (3)(a);
- “b” is the amount determined under sub-paragraph (3)(b);

“c” is the amount (if any) determined under sub-paragraph (3)(c).

- (8) As from the abolition day Parliamentary pension rights equivalent to those determined under sub-paragraph (1) are to accrue to the last Lord Chancellor.

Revival of any extinguished Parliamentary pension rights 5

- 12 (1) This paragraph applies if –
- (a) any Parliamentary pension rights had accrued to the last Lord Chancellor by the time of his appointment as Lord Chancellor, and
 - (b) in consequence of his appointment as Lord Chancellor, some or all of those rights were extinguished. 10
- (2) The Government Actuary must determine the value on the abolition day of rights equivalent to the extinguished Parliamentary pension rights.

SCHEDULE 9

Section 20

SUPREME COURT SELECTION COMMISSIONS 20

PART 1

SELECTION COMMISSIONS

Selection commission

- 1 (1) A selection commission consists of the following members –
- (a) the President of the Supreme Court; 25
 - (b) the Deputy President of the Supreme Court;
 - (c) one member of each of the following bodies –
 - (i) the Judicial Appointments Commission;
 - (ii) the Judicial Appointments Board for Scotland;
 - (iii) the Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission. 30
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1)(a) does not apply if –
- (a) the office of President is vacant, or
 - (b) the President is disqualified under paragraph 5.
- (3) References in this Part of this Schedule to the President’s place on a selection commission being unfilled are references to a case falling within paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-paragraph (2). 35
- (4) Sub-paragraph (1)(b) does not apply if –
- (a) the office of Deputy President is vacant, or
 - (b) the Deputy President is disqualified under paragraph 5.

- (5) References in this Part of this Schedule to the Deputy President's place on a selection commission being unfilled are references to a case falling within paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-paragraph (4).

Special rules where President's or Deputy President's place unfilled

- 2 (1) This paragraph applies if one (but not both) of the following conditions is met – 5
- (a) the President's place on a selection commission is unfilled;
 - (b) the Deputy President's place on a selection commission is unfilled.
- (2) The unfilled place on the selection commission is to be taken by the most senior ordinary judge of the Supreme Court. 10
- (3) If the unfilled place on the selection commission is not taken in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), the following are to be members of the commission instead –
- (a) the most senior judge of the courts of England and Wales, unless that jurisdiction is already represented; 15
 - (b) the most senior judge of the courts of Scotland, unless that jurisdiction is already represented;
 - (c) the most senior judge of the courts of Northern Ireland, unless that jurisdiction is already represented.
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph a jurisdiction is already represented if – 20
- (a) in a case where the President's place on the commission is unfilled, that jurisdiction is the home jurisdiction of the Deputy President;
 - (b) in a case where the Deputy President's place on the commission is unfilled, that jurisdiction is the home jurisdiction of the President.
- (5) Any person disqualified under paragraph 5 is to be disregarded in determining the most senior judge for the purposes of any provision of this paragraph. 25
- 3 (1) This paragraph applies if both of the following conditions are met –
- (a) the President's place on a selection commission is unfilled;
 - (b) the Deputy President's place on a selection commission is unfilled. 30
- (2) The unfilled places on the commission are to be taken by the following persons –
- (a) the most senior ordinary judge of the Supreme Court;
 - (b) the second most senior ordinary judge.
- (3) If neither of the unfilled places on the selection commission is taken in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), the following are to be members of the commission instead – 35
- (a) the most senior judge of the courts of England and Wales;
 - (b) the most senior judge of the courts of Scotland;
 - (c) the most senior judge of the courts of Northern Ireland. 40
- (4) If only one of the unfilled places on the selection commission is taken in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), the following are also to be members of the commission –
- (a) the most senior judge of the courts of England and Wales, unless that jurisdiction is already represented; 45
 - (b) the most senior judge of the courts of Scotland, unless that jurisdiction is already represented;

- (c) the most senior judge of the courts of Northern Ireland, unless that jurisdiction is already represented.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) a jurisdiction is already represented if it is the home jurisdiction of the judge who has taken a place on the selection commission in accordance with sub-paragraph (2). 5
- (6) Any person disqualified under paragraph 5 is to be disregarded in determining the most senior or second most senior judge for the purposes of any provision of this paragraph.
- 4 (1) The home jurisdiction of a judge of the Supreme Court is determined for the purposes of paragraphs 2 and 3 in accordance with this paragraph. 10
- (2) If the judge became, or first became, a member of the Supreme Court by virtue of section 18, his home jurisdiction is –
- (a) the jurisdiction in which he held (or last held) any high judicial office by which he was qualified for appointment as a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary; 15
- (b) if he was qualified for that appointment only by a qualification listed in section 6(a) to (c) of the Appellate Jurisdiction Act 1876 (c. 59), the jurisdiction in which he held that qualification;
- (c) if he held such a qualification in more than one jurisdiction, the jurisdiction with which he was, as the holder of such a qualification, most closely associated. 20
- (3) Sub-paragraph (4) applies if the following conditions are met –
- (a) the judge became, or first became, a member of the Supreme Court by virtue of sections 19 to 25;
- (b) he qualified for appointment, or first appointment, to the Supreme Court by virtue – 25
- (i) only of section 19(1)(a), or
- (ii) of section 19(1)(a) and (b).
- (4) In such a case the judge’s home jurisdiction is – 30
- (a) if he was qualified for appointment, or first appointment, by virtue of holding high judicial office in one jurisdiction, that jurisdiction;
- (b) if he was so qualified by virtue of holding high judicial office in more than one jurisdiction, the jurisdiction in which he was appointed to high judicial office most recently.
- (5) Sub-paragraph (6) applies if the following conditions are met – 35
- (a) the judge became, or first became, a member of the Supreme Court by virtue of sections 19 to 25;
- (b) he qualified for appointment, or first appointment, to the Supreme Court by virtue only of section 19(1)(b).
- (6) In such a case the judge’s home jurisdiction is – 40
- (a) if he was qualified for appointment, or first appointment, by virtue of being a qualifying practitioner in one jurisdiction, that jurisdiction;
- (b) if he was so qualified by virtue of being a qualifying practitioner in more than one jurisdiction, the jurisdiction with which he was, as a qualifying practitioner, most closely associated. 45

Disqualification

- 5 (1) The President, the Deputy President, an ordinary judge of the Court or a territorial judge is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission if it appears to the Minister that that person is for the time being incapacitated from serving as a member of that commission. 5
- (2) The Deputy President is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission for the office of President unless he gives the Minister notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy.
- (3) An ordinary judge of the Court is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission for the office of President or Deputy President unless he gives the Minister notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy. 10
- (4) A territorial judge is disqualified for the purposes of membership of any selection commission unless he gives the Minister notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy. 15

Non-judicial members of the selection commissions

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to those persons who are to be members of a selection commission by virtue of paragraph 1(1)(c).
- (2) The Minister must nominate one member of each Commission or Board referred to in that provision to be a member of the selection commission. 20
- (3) At least one of the persons nominated under sub-paragraph (2) to be a member of the selection commission must be non-legally qualified.
- (4) The Minister may nominate a person under sub-paragraph (2) only on the recommendation of the Commission or Board of which the person is a member. 25
- (5) The Minister may, out of money provided by Parliament, pay to any person nominated under sub-paragraph (2) such allowances as the Minister may determine.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a person is non-legally qualified if – 30
- (a) he does not hold, and has never held, any of the offices listed in Schedule 1 to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (judicial offices disqualifying for membership of the House of Commons), and
- (b) he is not, and has never been, a practising lawyer.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) “practising lawyer” has the same meaning as in paragraph 6 of Schedule 12 to this Act. 35

Chairing of a selection commission

- 7 A selection commission is to be chaired – 40
- (a) by the President of the Supreme Court, or
- (b) by the Deputy President of the Supreme Court, if the President is not a member of the commission, or
- (c) by the senior judge of the Supreme Court who is a member of the commission, if neither the President nor the Deputy President is a member, or

- (d) by the most senior of the territorial judges who are members of the commission, if no judges of the Supreme Court are members.

Interpretation

- 8 In this Schedule –
- (a) “selection commission for the office of President” means a selection commission convened in the case of a vacancy in the office of President; 5
- (b) “selection commission for the office of Deputy President” means a selection commission convened in the case of a vacancy in the office of Deputy President; 10
- (c) “selection commission for the office of judge” means a selection commission convened in the case of a vacancy among the ordinary judges;
- (d) “current vacancy”, in relation to a selection commission, means the vacancy in relation to which that commission has been convened. 15
- 9 (1) In this Part of this Schedule –
- “Judicial Appointments Board for Scotland” means the body of persons known collectively by that name (being persons appointed by the Scottish Ministers to carry out in Scotland functions corresponding to those of the Judicial Appointments Commission); 20
- “territorial judge”, in relation to a selection commission, means a judge of the courts of England and Wales, of Scotland or of Northern Ireland who is, or would be, a member of the commission by virtue of paragraph 2(3), 3(3) or 3(4).
- (2) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule – 25
- (a) the seniority of the judges of the Supreme Court is to be determined according to length of service as a judge of the Court (including for this purpose service over one or more periods);
- (b) in relation to a selection commission, the seniority of the territorial judges is to be determined according to length of service in the office by virtue of which each is, or would be, a member of the commission (including for this purpose service over one or more periods). 30
- (3) Service as a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary counts as service as a judge of the Court for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2).

PART 2 35

DISSOLUTION

Any selection commission

- 10 A selection commission is dissolved if the Minister notifies a selection made by the commission.
- 11 (1) A selection commission is dissolved if – 40
- (a) a member of the commission dies,
- (b) a person nominated in accordance with paragraph 6 resigns his membership of the commission, or
- (c) the Minister gives the commission notice that it appears to him that a member of the commission is incapacitated from continuing to serve as a member. 45

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the Minister must convene a new selection commission as soon as practicable after dissolution.

12 (1) A selection commission is dissolved if –

(a) a person who is a member of that commission by virtue of holding judicial office ceases to hold that office, 5

(b) a person nominated in accordance with paragraph 6 ceases to be a member of a Commission or Board referred to in paragraph 1(1)(c), or

(c) every person nominated in accordance with paragraph 4 who was non-legally qualified at the time of his nomination ceases to be non-legally qualified. 10

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the Minister must convene a new selection commission as soon as practicable after dissolution.

PART 3

DUTY TO CONVENE COMMISSION: SPECIAL RULES 15

Selection commission for the office of Deputy President

13 (1) Any duty imposed on the Minister under this Act to convene a selection commission for the office of Deputy President does not apply if any of the following conditions are met at the time when the Minister should convene that commission – 20

(a) a selection commission for the office of President has been convened and not dissolved;

(b) the Minister is under a duty to convene such a selection commission.

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the Minister must convene a selection commission for the office of Deputy President as soon as practicable after the Minister notifies a selection made by a selection commission in respect of the vacancy in the office of President. 25

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) applies to the duty under sub-paragraph (2) to convene a commission as it applies to all other such duties.

Selection commission for the office of judge 30

14 (1) Any duty imposed on the Minister under this Act to convene a selection commission for the office of judge does not apply if any of the following conditions are met at the time when the Minister should convene that commission –

(a) a selection commission for the office of President has been convened and not dissolved; 35

(b) the Minister is under a duty to convene such a selection commission;

(c) a selection commission for the office of Deputy President has been convened and not dissolved;

(d) the Minister is under a duty to convene such a selection commission. 40

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) applies, the Minister must convene a selection commission for the office of judge as soon as practicable after the Minister notifies a selection made by a selection commission in respect of the vacancy in the office of President or Deputy President.

- (3) Sub-paragraph (1) applies to the duty under sub-paragraph (2) to convene a commission as it applies to all other such duties.

SCHEDULE 11

Section 50

PROCEEDINGS UNDER JURISDICTION TRANSFERRED TO SUPREME COURT

Interpretation

- 1 (1) In this Schedule “transferred jurisdiction” means any jurisdiction of –
 - (a) the House of Lords, or 5
 - (b) the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council,that is transferred to the Supreme Court by virtue of this Act.
- (2) In relation to transferred jurisdiction –
 - “original court” means (as appropriate) –
 - (a) the House of Lords, or 10
 - (b) the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council;
 - “transfer day” means the day when the jurisdiction is transferred to the Supreme Court.
- 2 In this Schedule “transferred proceedings” means proceedings which were begun before the transfer day in the original court under transferred jurisdiction. 15

Proceedings

- 3 (1) As from the transfer day, transferred proceedings may be continued in the Supreme Court as if they had been begun in that court.
- (2) This paragraph is subject to Supreme Court Rules (whether made before or after the transfer date). 20
- 4 (1) Anything done in accordance with the rules of the original court in relation to transferred proceedings is, after the transfer day, to be treated as if it had been done in accordance with any Supreme Court Rules applicable to corresponding proceedings in the Supreme Court. 25
- (2) This paragraph is subject to Supreme Court Rules (whether made before or after the transfer date).
- 5 (1) Any act, judgment or order of the original court in the transferred proceedings is to have the same effect after the transfer day as if it had been an act, judgment or order of the Supreme Court in corresponding proceedings in that Court. 30
- (2) Accordingly, after the transfer day, further proceedings may be taken in the Supreme Court in respect of such an act, judgment or order.

Fees

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies to any fee due under the rules of the original court in relation to transferred proceedings which was unpaid on the transfer day. 35
- (2) As from the transfer day, the fee is payable as if it were due under the corresponding Supreme Court Rules.

Funds

- 7 (1) This paragraph applies to the investments and money which constitute the funds in court of – 40

- (a) the House of Lords, or
(b) the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, that are held in relation to transferred proceedings.
- (2) On the transfer day the investments and money are, by virtue of this paragraph and without any transfer or assignment, vested in the accounting officer as funds in the Supreme Court. 5
- (3) In dealing with any investments and money vested in him by virtue of this paragraph, the accounting officer must comply with any directions which the Minister may give with a view to securing the transition of the administration of the funds in court referred to in sub-paragraph (1). 10
- 8 (1) The transfer of any investments and money under paragraph 7 does not affect the right of any person in or to any thing so transferred.
- (2) Any such right may be enforced from the transfer day as if it had always been a right in respect of funds in the Supreme Court.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies to a liability of the House of Lords or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council if the following conditions are met— 15
- (a) the liability is in respect of sums which at one time formed part of funds in court held in relation to proceedings under transferred jurisdiction but which ceased to do so before the transfer day;
- (b) the liability is outstanding immediately before the transfer day. 20
- (2) On the transfer day the liability is, by virtue of this paragraph and without any transfer or assignment, vested in the accounting officer.
- (3) Any amounts required to meet any such liability are to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund to the accounting officer.
- 10 In paragraphs 7 and 9 “accounting officer” means the person who, in the view of the President of the Supreme Court, carries out duties in relation to that court that correspond as nearly as possible to the duties carried out in relation to the Supreme Court of England and Wales by the Accountant-General of that court. 25

 - (c) the requirements of sub-paragraph (7) have been complied with. 5
- (2) The Minister may recommend a person for appointment as a Commissioner for the purposes of paragraph 1(a), any other paragraph of paragraph 2(3), any paragraph of paragraph 2(4) or any of paragraphs (c) to (e) of paragraph 2(2) only if –
 - (a) he has requested a panel appointed by him to select a person or (as the panel may determine) more than one person for the purposes of such a recommendation, and 10
 - (b) the person he recommends is the person or one of the persons selected.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (1), the Minister must recommend for appointment any person selected by the Judges' Council. 15
- (4) A request under this paragraph must specify the provision for the purposes of which the appointment is to be made.
- (5) A request may specify the time within which a person is to be selected.
- (6) The Minister may appoint different panels for the purposes of different requests. 20
- (7) A selection by the Judges' Council must be notified to the Minister in a report which gives reasons for the selection.
- (8) In this paragraph references to the Judges' Council are to be read as references to a body designated for the purposes of this Schedule by the Lord Chief Justice. 25

Panels

- 8 (1) A panel appointed under paragraph 7(2) must have four members (subject to sub-paragraph (7)).
- (2) The first member must be a person selected by the Minister with the agreement of the Lord Chief Justice (or, if the office of Lord Chief Justice is vacant, with the agreement of the senior Head of Division). 30
- (3) That member is to be chairman of the panel.
- (4) The second member must be the Lord Chief Justice or his nominee, unless the office of Lord Chief Justice is vacant. 35
- (5) If that office is vacant, the second member must be the senior Head of Division or his nominee.
- (6) The third member must be a person nominated by the first member.
- (7) The chairman of the Commission must also be a member of the panel unless his office is vacant or is the office for which a recommendation is to be made. 40
- (8) A person must not be a member of the panel if he is employed in the civil service of the State.
- (9) A person must not be the first member if he is one of the following –
 - (a) a Commissioner;
 - (b) a member of the staff of the Commission; 45
 - (c) a practising lawyer;

- (d) the holder of a listed judicial office;
 - (e) a member of either House of Parliament.
- (10) A person must not be the third member if he is a member of either House of Parliament. 5
- (11) The Minister before selecting a person to be appointed as the first member, and the Lord Chief Justice or Head of Division before agreeing to the selection, must consider –
- (a) whether the person has exercised functions that appear to him to be of a judicial nature and such as to make the person inappropriate for the appointment; 10
 - (b) whether any past service in a capacity listed in sub-paragraph (8) or (9) appears to him to make the person inappropriate for the appointment.
- 9 The Minister may pay to a member of a panel appointed under paragraph 7(2) such remuneration, fees or expenses as he may determine. 15

Selection by a panel

- 10 (1) This paragraph applies to selection by a panel appointed under paragraph 7(2).
- (2) Before selecting a person the panel must consider –
- (a) in the case of a selection for the purposes of paragraph 2(4)(a), any views expressed by the General Council of the Bar; 20
 - (b) in the case of a selection for the purposes of paragraph 2(4)(b), any views expressed by the Law Society.
- (3) Before selecting a person for appointment as the chairman or one of the other lay members, the panel must consider –
- (a) whether the person has exercised functions that appear to the panel to be of a judicial nature and such as to make the person inappropriate for the appointment; 25
 - (b) whether any past service in a capacity listed in paragraph 8(9) or as a person employed in the civil service of the state appears to the panel to make the person inappropriate for the appointment. 30
- (4) The panel must select persons for appointment as lay members (including the chairman) with a view to securing, so far as practicable, that the persons so appointed include at any time at least one who appears to the panel to have special knowledge of Wales. 35

Vice-chairman

- 11 (1) The Commissioner who is the most senior of the persons appointed as judicial members is vice-chairman of the Commission.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) –
- (a) seniority is by office held at the time (first Lord Justice of Appeal, then puisne judge, then circuit judge, then district judge); 40
 - (b) between two holders of one of those offices, the person who has served longest in the office (over one or more periods) is the senior.
- (3) In the absence of the chairman, the vice-chairman may exercise the chairman’s functions other than under the following provisions –
- (a) paragraph 8(7); 45

- (b) section 59;
- (c) section 66.

Term of office etc. of Commissioners

- 12 (1) A Commissioner must be appointed for a fixed period.
(2) But an appointment is subject to paragraphs 13 to 15. 5
- 13 A person—
(a) may not be appointed as a Commissioner for more than 5 years at a time, and
(b) may not hold office as a Commissioner for periods (whether or not consecutive) totalling more than 10 years. 10
- 14 (1) The chairman ceases to be a Commissioner if he ceases to be chairman or ceases to be a lay member.
(2) Any other Commissioner ceases to be a Commissioner—
(a) in the case of a judicial or professional member, on the earlier of ceasing to be such a member, and ceasing to fall within the paragraph of paragraph 2(3) or 2(4) for the purposes of which he was appointed; 15
(b) in any other case, on ceasing to fall within the paragraph of paragraph 2(2) for the purposes of which he was appointed.
(3) A Commissioner ceases to be a Commissioner if he becomes one of the following— 20
(a) a member of the House of Lords;
(b) a person employed in the civil service of the State.
(4) But if (before or after such an event) the Minister directs in a particular case that sub-paragraph (2) is to be disregarded for a period specified in the direction, the person continues to be a Commissioner until the end of that period, subject to the terms of his appointment and the other provisions of this Schedule. 25
- 15 (1) A Commissioner may at any time—
(a) resign his office by notice in writing addressed to Her Majesty; 30
(b) be removed from office by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Minister.
(2) The Minister may not under sub-paragraph (1) recommend that a Commissioner be removed from office unless he is satisfied that the Commissioner— 35
(a) has failed without reasonable excuse to discharge the functions of his office for a continuous period of at least six months,
(b) has been convicted of an offence,
(c) is an undischarged bankrupt, or
(d) is otherwise unfit to hold his office or unable to discharge its functions. 40
(3) A recommendation on the ground mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(a) may not be made more than 3 months after the end of the period mentioned there.

Term of office etc. of chairman

- 16 If the chairman ceases to be a Commissioner, he ceases to be chairman. 45

Salary, allowances and expenses

- 17 (1) The Commission may –
- (a) pay to each Commissioner such remuneration, fees or expenses as the Minister may determine;
 - (b) pay, or make provision for the payment of, such pension, allowance or gratuity as the Minister may determine to or in respect of a person who is or has been a Commissioner. 5
- (2) If –
- (a) a person ceases to hold office as a Commissioner other than on the expiry of his term of appointment, and 10
 - (b) it appears to the Minister that there are special circumstances that would warrant the payment of compensation to him,
- the Minister may direct the Commission to make to or in respect of that person a payment of such amount as the Minister may determine.

Code of Conduct 15

- 18 The Minister may issue and from time to time revise a code of conduct to be observed by the Commissioners.

PART 2

THE COMMISSION

Status of the Commission and its property 20

- 19 (1) The Commission is not to be regarded –
- (a) as the servant or agent of the Crown, or
 - (b) as enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown.
- (2) The property of the Commission is not be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown. 25

Powers

- 20 (1) The Commission may do anything calculated to facilitate, or incidental or conducive to, the carrying out of any of its functions.
- (2) But the Commission may not borrow money except with the agreement of the Minister. 30
- (3) Nothing in this Schedule is to be read as limiting the generality of subparagraph (1).

Committees

- 21 (1) The Commission may establish committees.
- (2) A committee of the Commission may establish sub-committees. 35
- (3) A person may not be a member of a committee or sub-committee unless he is a Commissioner.
- (4) The Commission may delegate functions to a committee, and a committee may delegate functions (including functions delegated to them) to a sub-committee. 40

- (5) The function of making a selection under this Part of this Act may be delegated only to a committee or sub-committee whose members include at least one judicial member and one lay member.
- (6) In sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) references to a committee do not include references to a selection panel appointed under section 58 or 65. 5

Procedure and proceedings

- 22 (1) The Commission may regulate its own procedure, and the procedure of its committees and sub-committees, including quorum.
- (2) But the quorum of a committee or sub-committee to which the Commission’s function of making a selection under this Part of this Act has been delegated must not be less than 3. 10
- (3) The validity of proceedings of the Commission or a committee or sub-committee is not affected by –
- (a) a vacancy among the members, or
 - (b) a defect in the appointment of a member. 15

Staff

- 23 (1) The Commission –
- (a) must appoint a chief executive, and
 - (b) may appoint such other staff as it considers necessary to assist in the performance of its functions. 20
- (2) The Commission must not appoint a person as chief executive unless the Minister approves the appointment.
- (3) Staff are to be –
- (a) appointed on terms and conditions determined by the Commission, and approved by the Minister, and 25
 - (b) paid by the Commission in accordance with provision made by or under the terms of appointment.
- (4) In determining the terms and conditions the Commission must have regard to the desirability of keeping remuneration and the other terms and conditions broadly in line with those applying to employment in the civil service of the State. 30
- (5) In Schedule 1 to the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) (kinds of employment to which a scheme under section 1 of the Act may apply), at the end of the list of “Royal Commissions and other Commissions” insert –
- “Judicial Appointments Commission.” 35
- (6) The Commission must pay to the Minister for the Civil Service, at such times as he may direct, such sums as he may determine in respect of any increase attributable to sub-paragraph (5) in the sums payable out of money provided by Parliament under the Superannuation Act 1972.
- (7) Staff of the Commission are not to be regarded as – 40
- (a) servants or agents of the Crown, or
 - (b) enjoying any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown.

Arrangements for assistance

- 24 (1) The Commission may make arrangements with such persons as it considers appropriate for assistance to be provided to it.
- (2) Arrangements may include the paying of fees to such persons.
- (3) No arrangements may be made under this paragraph unless approved by the Minister. 5

Appointments and arrangements by the Minister

- 25 (1) The Minister may appoint a person to serve as chief executive until the first appointment under paragraph 23(1)(a) takes effect.
- (2) A chief executive serving under sub-paragraph (1) may incur expenditure and do other things (including appointing staff and making arrangements for assistance under paragraph 24) in the name and on behalf of the Commission – 10
- (a) before the membership of the Commission is first constituted in accordance with paragraph 1, and 15
- (b) thereafter, until the Commission determines otherwise.
- (3) A chief executive’s powers under sub-paragraph (2) are exercisable subject to any directions given to him by the Minister.
- 26 (1) The Minister may – 20
- (a) appoint persons to serve as members of the Commission’s staff;
- (b) make arrangements in the name and on behalf of the Commission for other assistance to be provided to the Commission.
- (2) The Minister may not exercise his powers under sub-paragraph (1) later than – 25
- (a) the end of 3 years after the day on which the Commission is first constituted in accordance with paragraph 1, or
- (b) such earlier time as the Commission may determine.
- (3) If there is a chief executive of the Commission the Minister may not exercise his powers under sub-paragraph (1) without the agreement of the chief executive. 30

Power to transfer staff to employment of the Commission

- 27 (1) The Minister may by regulations provide for the employment of any relevant person to be transferred to the Commission.
- (2) A relevant person is any person who, immediately before the date prescribed in regulations under sub-paragraph (1), is – 35
- (a) employed in the civil service of the State, and
- (b) providing assistance to the Commission in pursuance of arrangements made under paragraph 24 or 26.
- (3) But a person is not a relevant person if – 40
- (a) his employment in the civil service ends on the day immediately before the date referred to in sub-paragraph (2), or
- (b) he is withdrawn from work with the Commission with effect from that date.

- (4) Before making any regulations under this paragraph the Minister must consult such organisations as appear to him to represent the interests of persons likely to be affected by the regulations.
- (5) The Minister may only exercise his power under sub-paragraph (1) –
 - (a) before the membership of the Commission is first constituted in accordance with paragraph 1, and
 - (b) with the agreement of the Commission, during the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which the Commission is first constituted in accordance with that paragraph.

5

Delegation

10

- 28 (1) The Commission may delegate functions to –
- (a) any of its staff,
 - (b) any person with whom arrangements are made under paragraph 24 or 26, or
 - (c) any person providing assistance to the Commission in pursuance of such arrangements.
- (2) A committee, a sub-committee or the chief executive may delegate functions (including functions delegated to them or him) to any of the persons listed at sub-paragraph (1).
- (3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply to the functions of the Commission, or of a selection panel appointed under section 58 or 65, of making a selection under this Part of this Act.

Delegation and contracting out of superannuation functions

- 29 (1) Section 1(2) of the Superannuation Act 1972 (c. 11) (delegation of functions relating to civil service superannuation schemes by Minister for the Civil Service to another officer of the Crown etc.) has effect as if the reference to an officer of the Crown other than a Minister included a reference to the Commission’s chief executive.
- (2) Any administration function conferred on the chief executive under section 1(2) of that Act (in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)) may be exercised by, or by employees of, any person authorised by the chief executive.
- (3) “Administration function” means a function of administering schemes –
- (a) made under section 1 of that Act, and
 - (b) from time to time in force.
- (4) The chief executive may, under sub-paragraph (2), authorise a person to exercise administrative functions –
- (a) to their full extent or to a specified extent;
 - (b) in all cases or in specified cases;
 - (c) unconditionally or subject to specified conditions.
- (5) An authorisation under sub-paragraph (2) –
- (a) is to be treated for all purposes as given by virtue of an order under section 69 of the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 (c. 40) (contracting out of functions of Ministers and office-holders);
 - (b) may be revoked at any time by the Commission or the chief executive.

30

35

40

45

Inspection of documents

- 30 (1) The Commission must permit any person authorised by the Minister to inspect or make copies of accounts or other documents which in the opinion of the Minister relate to costs and expenditure of the Commission.
- (2) The Commission must provide such explanation of accounts or documents inspected or copied by any person under this paragraph as that person or the Minister may require. 5

- 31 (1) The Minister must pay to the Commission such sums as he may determine are appropriate for, or in connection with, the exercise by it of its functions. 10
- (2) The Minister may by direction require the Commission –
- (a) not to incur costs and expenditure in excess of a specified amount without his consent;
- (b) to follow specified procedures in relation to its costs and expenditure. 15
- (3) A direction under sub-paragraph (2) may relate to all of the Commission’s costs and expenditure, or to costs and expenditure of a specified description.

Accounts and audit

- 32 (1) The Commission must keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to them. 20
- (2) The Commission must prepare a statement of accounts in respect of each financial year.
- (3) The statement must give a true and fair view of the state of the Commission’s affairs at the end of the financial year, and of its income and expenditure and cash flows in the financial year. 25
- (4) The statement must be in compliance with any directions given by the Minister with the Treasury’s consent as to the information to be contained in the statement, the manner in which the information is to be presented or the methods and principles according to which the statement is to be prepared.
- (5) The Commission must send the statement to the Minister at such time as he may direct. 30
- (6) The Minister must, on or before 31 August in any year, send to the Comptroller and Auditor General the statement prepared by the Commission for the financial year last ended.
- (7) The Comptroller and Auditor General must examine, certify and report on the statement sent to him under sub-paragraph (6) and must lay copies of it and of his report before each House of Parliament. 35

Reports

- 33 (1) The Commission must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, provide to the Minister a report about the performance of its functions during that year. 40
- (2) After consulting the Lord Chief Justice, the Minister may by direction require the Commission to deal, in reports or a particular report under sub-paragraph (1), with matters specified in the direction.

- (3) The Commission must, as soon as practicable after a direction by the Minister under this sub-paragraph, provide to the Minister a report about any matter or matters specified in the direction.
- (4) The Minister must lay before each House of Parliament a copy of any report provided to him under sub-paragraph (1). 5
- (5) The Commission must publish any report once copies of it have been laid under sub-paragraph (4).

Documentary evidence

- 34 The application of the seal of the Commission is to be authenticated by the signature of any Commissioner or member of staff of the Commission who has been authorised (whether generally or specifically) for the purpose. 10
- 35 Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by an individual, would not need to be under seal, may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Commission by any person who has been authorised (whether generally or specifically) for the purpose. 15
- 36 A document purporting to be –
 - (a) duly executed under the seal of the Commission, or
 - (b) signed on behalf of the Commission,is to be received in evidence and, unless the contrary is proved, taken to be executed or signed in that way. 20

General

- 37 (1) “Financial year” in this Schedule, means –
 - (a) the period beginning with the date on which the Commission is established and ending with the following 31 March, and
 - (b) each successive period of twelve months. 25
- (2) In Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (bodies of which all members are disqualified) at the appropriate place insert –

“The Judicial Appointments Commission.”.
- (3) In Part 6 of Schedule 1 to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (c. 36) (other public bodies and offices which are public authorities) at the appropriate place insert –

“The Judicial Appointments Commission.”
